

GROUP 2: 6 BURSARIES FOR FIRST YEAR STUDENTS

6 bursaries of EUR 3000 each will be given to selected 1st year PhD students

Criteria	Description
Eligibility	Projects must be designed for the award of PhD or equivalent Projects must have started or will start in academic year 2011/2012
Student	Can be from any scientific background but one aim of the bursaries is to attract people who have not studied Food Chemistry, Food Science or Food Technology to study food flavors Projects do not necessarily have to be restricted to scientific aspects, but can also cover other features of flavor science such as business policy, marketing, legislation, consumer impact, etc.
Novelty	A brief summary of the work should clearly state the background to the project, the hypotheses to be tested and explain the novelty of the work and its potential to further our understanding of flavor science
Interdisciplinary	Projects that involve training the student in more than one scientific discipline will be favoured.
Experimental design and data analysis	All projects should describe appropriate methodology for experimental design and data analysis.
Language	English
Registration	All documents should be countersigned by the Professor concerned. Evidence of enrolment in the 2011/2012 academic year at the university/institute should accompany the documents Deadline: October 31, 2011
Evaluation	Complete evaluation of first year candidates will take place during December 2011 to select the 6 candidates for the bursary. Results will be announced on December 20, 2011
Bursary	The bursary will be used to give the student an extra incentive and make projects attractive to high calibre students. The one-off bursary of EUR 3000 will be awarded to the 6 selected first year PhD students during the 2011/2012 academic year , based on research-related invoices countersigned by the respective professors. Invoices can relate to expenses such as purchases of equipment, databases, participation in conferences, visits to laboratories, etc. Any unused part of the bursary within the project deadline will be handed over to the respective department of the university/institute.

Relevant documents should be sent to:

Giract, 24 chemin Pré Colomb, CH – 1290 Versoix, Switzerland
info@giract.com

For further details or enquiries, please contact:

Andy.Taylor@nottingham.ac.uk or info@giract.com

APPLICATION FORM FOR GROUP 2 STUDENTS
BURSARY FOR 1ST YEAR PHD STUDENTS IN FLAVOR RESEARCH

Please complete this form and send it, with a copy of the thesis summary, by the closing date of October 31, 2011 to:

Giract
24 chemin Pré Colomb
CH – 1290 Versoix
Switzerland
info@giract.com

Name of PhD student

Postal address

Email address

University/Institute (name and address)
where PhD studies will take place

Date of PhD enrolment

Name of PhD supervisor

Supervisor signature to confirm compliance with the award regulations (See above)

Source of current funding, e.g. Government funds, personal means, industrial sponsor

Summary of PhD thesis

Use 10 pt font, 1 side of A4
Do not exceed the margins of this page

